EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. According to the Department of Education, there is nothing in current policy that prevents a school district from using state funds to purchase computer hardware. A district choosing to do so could use state funds currently dispersed to them that are not designated for any other specific purpose to make such purchases.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
